

INFORMED CONSENT FORM

Math Role Playing Game

You are invited to participate in a study for a math-based role playing video game. The purpose of this study is to evaluate the user interface of the game. You were selected for this study because you fit the target demographic of the game.

If you choose to participate, you will be given predetermined tasks to perform, using our lo-fidelity prototype of the game interface. The entire process will take approximately 45 minutes.

Any information that is obtained from this study which can be identified with you will remain confidential and will be disclosed only with your permission. We will only be documenting information about your behavior in the experiment as well as brief background information about you, and this information will only be submitted directly to our class professor and graduate student instructor.

Your decision whether or not to participate will not prejudice your future relation with the members of this group. If you decide to participate, you are free to discontinue participation at any time without prejudice.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

You will be offered a copy of this form to keep.

You are making a decision whether or not to participate. Your signature indicates that you have read the information provided above and have decided to participate. You may withdraw at any time without penalty or loss of benefits to which you may be entitled after signing this form should you choose to discontinue participation in this study.
